Welcome,

The following is an e-Book based on my website, Hexahedron1.org. This edition is edited and has minor changes. I am a very spiritual being who is engaged in conversation with SPIRIT all-the-time. Spirit prompted me to share this IMPORTANT information on the Internet; it is intended for the very few who are guided to this document or www.hexahedron1.org

Home Page

My name is David Maxwell. I am an Ascended Master and was born as an American in 1949.

Neurologically, that is a 14 or 5 with a 9 or a 14 year. 14 is an important number for Humans; look at your hand or foot, the thumb/big toe is 10 and the fingers/toes are 1 each. Same with our bodies; the torso is 10 and the limbs (arms and legs) are 1 each. To push this a bit more, the mouth is 10 and the nostrils and eyes are 1 each.

So 14 is an important number for Humans – How? One answer is that we all have 14 energy centers or chakras; the seven most people know about, one 6 inches above our heads and another 6 inches below our feet, one each for our hands and feet and the 14th in our “Inner” Heart.

So now, it is time to be watchful about 14 days. Any 5th, 14th or 23rd day in any month is a 14 day; the 5 is always a 14 whether it is made from 1+4 or 2+3. Any month and day that equals 5 is also a 14 day, like April 1st or December 2. Lastly, 14 days can be made from day, month and year. Some new information; 28 (2×14) is also a 14 day. It seems that we, Humans, are creators to varying degrees of strength. It is on the 14 days that we are allowed to create. It is on 14 days that we are allowed to choose between options we have set up for ourselves.

To help people understand more, we Humans, as creators, use the primary energy we came here to use. For now, those energy choices are Red and Purple.

We are in the final days of Red-energy and the beginning days of Purple.

As you will read elsewhere on this site, there are 1,000 Ascended Masters of Red-energy and 1,000 Ascended Masters of Purple-energy on Earth, now. I came here to find a short-cut around the long-standing “bottle-neck” in the Fire-being Adept degree of power. I found the short-cut and immediately re-configured myself through 3 more degrees of power and into the Earth-energy Hexahedron symbol. Shortly after transforming myself, Spirit or Purple-energy (for me) began setting me up with other Purple-energy Ascended Masters/Adepts so that they could transform themselves as well. Since 2002, I have helped more than 500 people to transform themselves and become Newmen (Newman and Newoman). Essentially, these Newmen have become much more powerful beings who will live far beyond the years of the Biblical Patriarchs in healthy, youthful bodies with enhanced creator abilities in manifesting things, moving things mentally and traveling to distant places instantly in their Light Body vehicles.

I put up this site as a pathway for the other Purple-energy Ascended Masters/Adepts to contact me. Purple-energy has taken over from Red-energy, at a general-level, on March 1st, 2011 and grows more powerful every day. This is why I have waited until now to publish this information.

For those who survive the coming Pole Shift and associated Earth Changes, our world will be a very different place. All of the survivors will be Fire-being Adepts with enhanced creator abilities described above. The bad news for most people on the planet is that there will only be 300 million survivors.

For those beings leaving, fear not, for we are all immortal beings who rest, recuperate and re-born ourselves over and over again. Every single person who has been here on Planet Earth during this vast energy shift is receiving credits in their Spiritual advancement.

Activate Your MerKaBa Page

Before you can become an Adept, you must activate or turn-on your MerKaBa or Light Body. If you search on Merkaba, you will find several sites that provide information on how to activate your traveling vehicle.

Ask yourself if you are strong in Purple-energy? If you get a yes, that means you can just say, "turn on my Light Body." Your intent is enough.

For those of you who do not have at least 80% Purple-energy, use the breathing techniques offered by Drunvelo and the Flower of Life group. It works, that is how I originally turned my Light Body on back in 2001. Many of you will get to 80% or more by turning-on your MerKaBa; you have to intend to, and take action to move towards the Light, in this case, Purple.

About Newmen Page

There is a new category of Aware Beings on Planet Earth. Until recently, the highest level of aware-being was Human. That is no longer the case.

Humans have evolved into Newmen, of both sexes. There are, now, about 500 Purple-energy Humans who have transformed themselves into Newmen.

All of the Newmen have evolved from advanced Humans; Humans who have been Adepts and Ascended Masters in many lives prior to this one.

Are you ready to become a Newman or Newoman? If so, I will know about you when you contact me.

Great Year - 25,920 Years Page

The Great Year is the time it takes for our Solar System to complete an orbit of a dark star our astronomers cannot locate. This dark star is a collapsed dark sun that does not emit anything. The Precision of the Equinox theory is a nice try, but does not account for the 25,920 years it takes to complete a Great Year.

The Great Year begins anew with Aquarius. We are in the last 500 days of Pisces and will enter Aquarius on December 21st, 2012. Yes, the Mayans had it right as well, we will leave time as we know it. They divided the Great Year into 5 ages of 5,184 years each whereas we, Western Civilization, divide it into 12 ages (Houses of the Zodiac) of 2,160 years each.

By New Years Day on 2013, we will have entered a new Great Year cycle and the energy of Aquarius. This means several things of great importance. First, our astronomers "discovered" that we were moving towards a vast belt of intense light back in 1950. They called it the "Photon Belt"; Google it. This was, oddly enough, in a vertical configuration or 90 degrees to the path of our orbit. This is also the House of Aquarius and is 2,160 years wide.

Fast forward to 2011; we have been in the spill-over light from this Aquarian "Photon Belt" since 1960. The "Photon Belt" and the light-energy we have been passing through is higher vibration energy and is directly responsible for the explosion in technologies here on Planet Earth. There was refrigerators, freezers, dish washers, mainframe computers, networks, Jet Planes, satellites, Moon Landings, digital communications, data bases, Personal Computers, the Internet, Laptop computers, cell phones and, now, smart phones and smart pads. This energy is Aquarian energy and can be characterized as water being poured on the uppermost point of a mountain so that each droplet can find it's own way down; there is no school of fish to follow (Pisces) or flock of sheep to follow (Aries) or heard of cattle to follow (Taurus). The days of male-dominated, hierarchical organizations, institutions, structures based on follow-the-leader, authority figures, titles, credentials, seeking permission, seeking answers from others is over. Aquarian-energy can be described as finding your own way, following your inner guidance and not considering outside, authority figure consideration.

Pisces, Aries and Taurus are all great examples of three ages where the dominant energy was one of fear, force and control along with no-change; these are attributes of Darkness. That energy was embedded in an even stronger energy, called Red-energy, that we have been immersed in for 12,919 years. Red-energy is characterized as the energy of division, dis-unity, separateness, tribal strife, religious strife, sexual repression and war-in-general.

Both of these energies are being replaced by Aquarian Light – freedom, truth, order, choice, integrity, doing-the-right-thing and advancing civilization and Purple Light – oneness, unity, togetherness, doing-the-right-thing and advancing civilization. That replacement became significant, for the first time, on March 1st, 2011. This is why the peoples of the Earth are all demanding that their corrupt, fear-imposed leaders step-down to be replaced by free and fair elections. This is also why the era of big government intruding into our lives is coming to an end.

The vast majority of the people here, are oriented towards fear, force, control, no-change and divide and conquer; attributes of Dark and Red energies. To these, the transition to Light and Purple energies will be one of seeming chaos as everything they have known as the way to be dissolves around them.

Whenever there is a 13,000 year shift, it can be called a Shift of the Ages; we have been through 6 houses (ages) of the Zodiac since the last one. In the last Shift of the Ages, the last Ice-age ended with a minor Pole Shift. We are, again, having a minor Pole Shift this time. Our technology and civilization will be tested, but will survive. The next 18 months are going to be a time of trial for all of us. Those who survive the trying times ahead will become new, humans or newmen.

Platonic Solids Page

This is a Spiritual page, not a mathematics discussion. For a good discussion of Polyhedra, use this Wikipedia Link:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Platonic_solids

Plato wrote about these Five Solids in the dialogue Timaeus c.360 B.C. This was information from the Gods or what we call Channeling now. I, like Plato, also receive channeled information from Spirit and am sharing that with you now. Plato had it right.

There are five elements that our physical world is made from: Fire, Earth, Air, Water and Spirit. The first of these is Fire and the Fire-symbol is a

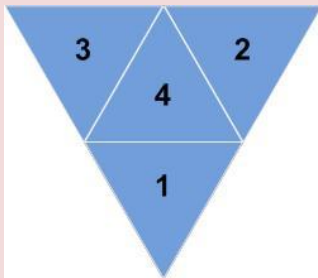

Tetrahedron or Fire-energy

When Humans are born, they all come here as Fire-beings. We are all like a piece of charcoal; it takes a while to get going, burns brightly with purpose and slowly turns to dust. Fire-beings come and go many times to learn what to do and what not to do. After many lives of re-mem-bering that they are Spirit and can find answers within themselves,

Fire-beings find a way to advance themselves on their symbol. When One Attains enough insight while at the same time raising one's vibration level and one's level of vibration, one advances to becoming an Adept; also called an Ascended Master. An Adept is the first of four power levels as a Fire-being. In the Tetrahedron figure above, the Adept plane is in green.

The Tetrahedron is composed of four equilateral triangles representing Adept, Vertical Master, Horizontal Master and Mahatma degrees of power. When one has become an Adept, there are four degrees of attainment within the Adept degree of power. Everyone must start at the lowest point, attain the corners and move towards oneness in the center. The same applies to degrees of Attainment with the Vertical Master (the back plane in the above Tetrahedron figure), the Horizontal Master (the brownish plane in the above Tetrahedron figure) and Mahatma (the top plane in the above Tetrahedron figure).

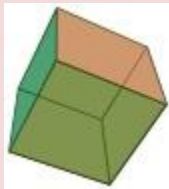

Because Fire-being have such short Lifetimes, when one becomes an Adept and gains attainments within Adept, the Adept power level and attainments are carried into each new lifetime. Over many lifetimes, Spirits-in-a-body re-member more and more of who they are and carry their achievements with them in each new lifetime. As I discussed in one of my Posts, the old paradigm was one of attaining to Adept and becoming an Ascended Master.

There are approximately 2,000 Adepts/Ascended Masters on Planet Earth at this time. These Adepts are equally divided into two groups; 1,000 Red-energy and 1,000 Purple-energy. Have you ever asked yourself what it takes to get on the Forbes 1000 list or to get elected President of the United States with no experience and seemingly from nowhere. These are people who are Adepts/Ascended Masters who are advanced creators using Red-energy. That is how they have become rich and powerful and have managed to accumulate $Billions.

In another post, I discuss a 13,000 year SHIFT from Red-energy to Purple-energy; from separateness, division and dis-unity to oneness, togetherness and common goals/directions. The 1,000 Purple-energy Adepts/Ascended Masters are here to take over from the Red-energy Adepts and to create a smooth transition into this new energy. In the old paradigm, people were not able to figure out how to complete the four degrees of attainment with Adept Fire-being. Most Adepts were stalled at 2 with very few getting to 3.

Only one Spirit-in-a-body achieved attainment level 4, and I came here in this lifetime to change the paradigm to something more achievable. The Platonic Solids were known about and part of our Scientific/Mathematical mindset. Adepts and Ascended Masters were using just one of the four planes or sides of the Tetrahedron and were not able to vibrate themselves back to Spirit. I focused on how to find a way past Adept that was "outside" the triangle. I was brought to the Platonic Solids, spinning vortexes, spinning Tetrahedrons (which look a lot like the top of a Martini glass) and my "Inner" Heart.

I discussed the importance of the number "14" in my first Post on the Home page. We have 14 energy centers and the Inner Heart is the 14th. I found a way to re-configure my energy centers or chakras to become a Vertical Master, then a Horizontal Master and, finally, a Mahatma. When I put this all together, I noticed that the Mahatma configuration fit perfectly into a Hexahedron or a Cube

Hexahedron (Cube) or Earth-energy

The Hexahedron is the Platonic Solid symbol for Earth energy and Earth-beings. When I inserted the Mahatma symbol into the Cube, I became the first Earth-being on Planet Earth and many other places. That is why I call this website Hexahedron One.

Since that day in 2002, Purple Energy has been introducing me to people who are like me, Purple-energy Ascended Masters. What I have been doing is sharing how I got past the Adept bottle-neck and enabling them to advance to Vertical Master, Horizontal Master, Mahatma and into the Cube. This is all part of the Shift-of-the-Ages.

The Hexahedron or Cube has six sides that are equal squares. Like the Tetrahedron, each of the squares in the Hexahedron is sub-divided into degrees of attainment; each square has 9 degrees of attainment. Fire-beings have 16 different degrees of attainment before they can become Earth-beings. Earth-beings have 54 degrees of attainment before they can become Air-beings. Just as it has taken Aeons to break-through to higher Fire-being powers, it may take Aeons to complete the degrees of attainment within Earth energy. Fire-, Air- and Water-energies are all based on the equilateral triangle with 4 degrees of attainment per triangle; Tetrahedron ($4 \times 4 = 16$), Octahedron ($8 \times 4 = 32$) and Icosahedron ($20 \times 4 = 60$).

It is no accident that we call our planet Earth; it is definitely one of the most complex elements with many, many properties. The good news is that we have many people who have found their way into Earth-energy and there is a path towards Air-energy and Water-energy.

Humans as Creators - 4/9/11

My name is David Maxwell. I was born as an American in 1949.

Ascended Master and Ascension Creation Broken - 4/9/11

In the previous post, I explained the importance of the number 5 or 14. That is the creator number!

I was born in a 14 year and came here with the expressed intent of creating something new here. It actually goes back to the writings of Plato, the Greek Philosopher. He wrote about something called the Platonic Solids; these are five shapes that are unique and represent Fire energy \(Tetrahedron\), Earth energy (Hexahedron), Air energy (Octahedron), Water energy (Icosahedron) and Spirit energy (dodecahedron).

As Humans, we are all born as Fire beings and our shape has been two tetrahedrons put together to form a MerKaBa or Light Body which looks like the Star of David when viewed from above. Because the Tetrahedron has four triangular sides, there are four different degrees of power for Fire beings; Adept, Vertical Master, Horizontal Master and Mahatma. Each triangle of the Tetrahedron is broken down into 4 smaller, equal sized triangles which represent the different degrees of attainment within each degree of power. In centuries past, people seeking spiritual advancement would spend decades moving up the degrees of attainment within the Adept power. This is what the Mystery Schools did. As people became stronger Adepts, they also learned how to raise their vibration levels, but more importantly, their levels of vibration. This allowed people here, and on other Planets, to become what we call Ascended Masters.

To achieve this status, people had to vibrate themselves out of this physical space and into the 8th space above us. We are spirits-in-a-body that are playing here in the 9th, most dense space away from SPIRIT who operates in the Zero or Won space. Spirit is like the Princess-and-the-Pea nursery story; it had to try a feel what was going on down here through 10 layers of Physicalities. This was the old paradigm; getting to some form of Adept power and then becoming an Ascended Master and then repeating it on the 8th, 7th and 6th levels of physicalities. This became a HUGE problem as none of the Spirits-in-a-body were able to Ascend into the 5th physical space or higher. After eons, it became painfully clear that the Ascension creation was not working; Spirits were unable to re-member themselves and eventually, merge with their Source Self.

This is what we all came here to do, besides all the pleasure and pain.

The only difference between an old Soul and one not-so-old is that the Old Soul remembers more of who He/She is.

Purple Energy is Here - 4/9/11

After nearly 13,000 years of being in Red-energy, we have entered into Purple-energy. We Humans know Red-energy well; it has been behind every war in our long, forgotten history. Red-energy is the energy of separateness, division, difference, dis-unity and has provided the energetic framework for tribes, religions, countries, nation states, cultures, races, national origins and all of the wars.

What is this separateness? It is the underlying reason for war, economic and religious strife. The Good News is that Red -energy has been replaced by Purple-energy on March 1st, 2011. Purple Energy is Here!!!

So how is Purple-energy different than Red-energy? Purple-energy is the energetic framework for Unity, Togetherness, Oneness and is the direct-opposite of Red-energy. What does this mean? We have entered Purple-energy and will be within its influence for 12,920 years. For the first time in a very long time, civilization can advance rapidly without having to "knocked-back" into the Dark Ages by Red-energy.

How many times have we thought to ourselves that Mankind is not civilized and that our "nature" was somehow deficient in the advance of Civilization. If Red-energy was our primary energy source and its focus was applied as separateness, then that time is now over.

There is a problem. The vast majority of the people on our planet are people who have completely embraced Red-energy and their time is now over. The question is, How many Red-energy oriented people can shift to Purple-energy? This has nothing to do with Race, Religion, Culture or National Origin. The answer may be many, but probably not most.

As we grow stronger in Purple-energy and move towards Unity, the Red-energy focus on Separateness will create an intolerable conflict causing most Red-energy people to return to Spirit. Large numbers of Red-energy people will begin to die in the last six months of 2011. Our politicians and leaders do not yet know about this HUGE shift in energy that has taken place; most of them are Red-energy people. Purple-energy people have been coming into our world in large numbers since 1987. What we are seeing in the Middle East is the impact of Purple-energy on people controlled by large amounts of Red-energy. That old energy is going, going, gone and they all want Unity and want to somehow work together to make their world better. If you are oriented towards Purple-energy, you know the energy has shifted; it is palpable. Take heart, you will inherit the Earth.

Earth Changes and Pole Shift - 4/12/11

2011 is a year of Great Change.

Everywhere, the weather is different and more extreme. Japan is experiencing death-throws; most of Japan will break asunder continued earth quakes and violent volcanic explosions. The nuclear disaster will spread in all directions before the end. When Japan sinks, it will take Korea and much of the Russian Far-Eastern territory. We are in the midst of a gradual pole shift.

The new North Pole will be approximately 300 miles East-North-East from Moscow in Russia. This will bring the Euro-Asian landmass to the top of the world and make it much colder. The Mediterranean Sea will become cold like the Northern Pacific Ocean. The new equator will run through the middle of the United States bisecting the State of Tennessee. Canada will have a climate similar to the US climate now.

As this gradual pole shift happens, the oceans of the world will become imbalanced by melting polar ice. This imbalance will trigger massive changes on our planet. Both poles must be in deep water (or ice) for the correct electro-magnetic properties. Much of Russia west of the Ural Mountains will subside and be inundated by the Arctic Ocean. All of Northern Africa will subside and be inundated by the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean.

All of the Arab Nations will experience vast subsidence and inundation from both the Mediterranean and the Indian Ocean; this includes Egypt, Israel, Jordan, Southern Lebanon, Southern and Western Iraq, some of Syria, the entire Saudi Arabian peninsula and lands south of the Red Sea.

These will, in turn, trigger massive earthquakes and subsidence in Iran, Pakistan, Afghanistan, India, Tibet and China. Great Tsunamis, as high as 1,200 feet will break upon these lands and travel hundreds of miles inland. Indonesia, Borneo and the Philippines will all experience great destruction from earthquakes, volcanoes and subsidences.

There will be several new Seas; the Amazon Sea, the Mississippi Sea and the Gulf of Colorado as well as the Isles of California. The oceans of the world will cover more than 75 percent; there will be much less land.

The Pole Shift is already happening and it will accelerate in 2011. Much of the activity discussed above will happen at the end of 2011 and the beginning of 2012. For those who read this, prepare yourselves as best as you can. Vast numbers of Red-energy people are being called "Home" to Spirit.

Are you a Newman or a Newman-in-Waiting? 4/14/11

The New Age movement is a bottom-up phenomena of spiritual people who know they have been "here" many times before. There are literally 100s of millions of advanced Spirits-in-a-body here on Planet Earth now.

Whether you are ready to become a Newman now, or have to wait on further developments, depends on how much Purple-energy you have. The people that I have helped to re-configure themselves all had at least 95% Purple-energy (5% Red-energy).

There are literally 100s of thousands of advanced spiritual beings that are in the 90-95% range and millions in the 80-90% range. Do not despair, we are just entering Purple-energy and will be immersed in it for roughly the next 13,000 years. Everyone who survives the Pole Shift-Earth Changes transition into Purple-energy will become Adepts, just from being exposed to the titanic energy flows. Being an Adept means having powers to manifest things, move things and very long lives in healthy, youthful bodies. There will be lots of time and opportunity to advance for all of the survivors and the many newcomers anxiously waiting to be born on this planet. Gaia, or Planet Earth is the only place in the billions of planets in the 9 Universes (the Multiverse) where the new, re-configure your energy centers paradigm is in operation. We are in the 9th Universe, far out on the edge of everything, but we are the center for rapid Spiritual Advancement.

Ask yourselves, is this small planet THE DESTINATION for ALL Advanced or Advancing Spirits-in-a-body from Everywhere?

Essentially, we have become the new, Center of the Multiverse!!!

New Developments, Great News - 4/22/11

Tomorrow, April 23rd, 2011 is the release date for new-paradigm, Purple-energy Fire Powers.

All-right, so what, what does this mean to Newmen and Newwomen walking around? And what does it mean for Humans?

If you are a Newman or Newoman or one in waiting, you have ALL always known (via your Knowing) that you came here (were born here) with GREAT powers; you have been waiting patiently, with suppressed frustration, for much of your life for these powers to show up.

Well Newmen, they are here as of 12 o'clock midnight on April 23rd wherever you are on Planet Earth. I've written about creating on 14 days; April 23rd a 14 day. 2+3 are a

5. Any 5 is really a 14. 23 is also a Prime Number. By adding 4, from April, the 2+3 becomes a 9, the number of completion. By adding the 5+the 9 together, it is another 14 level. The numerology of things can be very important when it involves the number 14 and 9 which is again 23.

Numerology aside, all of those who have transformed themselves into Newmen, or mostly, Newwomen, will actually receive ACTIVE Adept and Vertical Master Fire powers for the first time. Many of these Newmen have had unusual powers all of their lives, but never spoke of them and rarely displayed them. This group is fairly small, about 500 beings here. I expect this group to grow to 1,000 soon and, perhaps, 10,000 over the next 25,920 years.

There is a much larger group of Humans, who are Newmen-in-waiting, who will also receive ACTIVE Adept Fire powers. This group will receive these powers like they are new-born babies; must learn to wave the arms and legs, wiggle the fingers and toes, roll-over, get-up on all-four, crawl, stand, walk, run and jump. That is 9 different levels of learning before these beings will be turned loose to use their powers as they choose. This group of Adepts numbers in the 100s-of-thousands.

So, there will be 100s-of-thousands of people on our planet who will have Majikal powers that make them very different from "normal" Humans. Are these Newman beings to be feared? Will these beings operate in self-interest and gather up all the Good Stuff for themselves?

The answer is NO and NO. In another posting, I wrote about the end of Red-energy and the beginning of Purple-energy. Red-energy is energy of self interest and separateness; it is the number 2. The world has transitioned (is transitioning to) the number 4 (2×2) and into Purple-energy; togetherness, group interest, oneness, unity.

These people who I refer to as Newmen, and Newmen-in-waiting, are all mostly Purple-energy beings. They are all oriented towards doing what right or best for everyone, not just themselves. These people are all Seekers of Truth, Newagers, Light-workers and other names for people who have sought guidance for their lives from within. All Newmen are guided, in all of their actions, from within; from what most people call God. This inner guidance and the energy for Newmen Fire powers comes from the ascendant Purple-energy. For Humans, Red-energy, divide-and-conquer, division, strict self-interest, separateness, tribalism and other us-versus-them movements are the old Gods to include the asshole God of the Old Testament and even worse, the Jihadist God called Allah.

Obviously, if I am receiving and acting upon guidance from Purple-energy, I have no use for organized religions of any stripe or denomination. They all claim that their way is the only way and yet there are hundreds of ways. These religions are all about controlling masses of people with fear and force. At least the Christians and Buddhists treat women with respect and honor.

These are all Red-energy institutions and will be dissolving relatively quickly. This is especially true of Islam, the red-ist of the red religions. Here on Planet Earth, Red-energy, also called Darkness, has headquartered itself in a cubical black stone, called the Q'bah, in Mecca and demanded that it be worshiped several times a day. Islam demands this, it is not optional; Islam only spreads at the point of a sword and the establishment of Allah's Law.

There are some, in the United States and Europe, who have awakened to the awareness that Islam is very Dark (Evil), very Red, very separate, widely diversional and acting against. The spread of pure or radical Islam is Red-energy's last great push before it loses its power; but it is not going the way it is supposed to be going. Purple-energy has intervened; the Muslim Brotherhood has not taken over, as everyone expected. People, even in Muslim countries, are demanding, in the streets, at great peril to themselves, Freedom, Truth, Order and Respect for Women. Put another way, they are calling for Purple to come in and clean out the stables.

What is really happening in the Middle East is that vast numbers of people who were being forced to live and think in a deep Red-energy environment are now being offered Purple-energy and vast numbers are moving towards Purple as fast as they can.

The 5TH Dimension is Here, Start Creating - 4/23/11

Many of you who read this post will know and have a longing for the arrival of the Shift into what has long been called the "5th Dimension." For many Newagers and Seekers, this 5th Dimension has been an article of faith, like the Raising from death on the third day, is for Christians. For many, they will remember a musical group called the 5th Dimension and a song they did called, "The Dawning of the Age of Aquarius."

Where did this 5th Dimension come from and what is it? We Humans (and Newmans) live in a physical world where there is height, width and depth. Anyone who prepares a box for shipment understands the volume inside the box is made up from those three dimensions. The fourth dimension is Time.

Ok, so what is this 5th dimension? Is it Space? Or is that too closely tied to Time? The concept of time/space is very interesting from a science and knowledge perspective, but it not enough to represent a "shift" from the normal, mundane, way of the Human; there must be more. We KNOW that there must be MORE.

There is, and it is beginning to sink in to a few. I've written about a Huge Shift in energy from Red/Pisces to Purple/Aquarius and many of us are becoming more-and-more aware of that SHIFT, but that is not enough either. There is MORE.

There is the new paradigm of changing your energy centers and finding the short-cut to becoming an Adept, or a Master or a Mahatma; to becoming something more than Human – a Newoman or Newman. This is an energetic shift that our collective consciousness understands, but there is still something missing at our individual consciousness level.

So what is the missing piece? What is the A-Hah moment? Hold up your hand and count; you have 5 fingers or four fingers and a thumb. In other posts, I have written about the significance of the number 5 and 14. This is an INSIGHT that fits with vast precision into the shift of energy from Red (Separateness) to Purple (Unity) and the shift from disempowered Humans to empowered Newmans. This knowing, that the number 14 or 5 is the number of the creator, as mundane as that appears to be, is the arrival of the 5th Dimension.

For everyone on the planet today, we have shifted into Unity; there is a path, for everyone, to Newman and everyone can begin to create, more directly, the things they want by creating on days that add up to 5 numerologically. To be very specific, for April of any year, that would be 4/1, 4/5, 4/10, 4/14, 4/19, 4/23 and 4/28. The 5th, 14th and 23rd of every month is a Creator day as they add up to 5. The month of May is an exception; as it is a 5 already, everyday in May is a creator day with more power on the 5th, 14th and 23rd.

So Creator Human or Newman, start creating what you want for yourself. Remember, the energy of Unity is part of this SHIFT to the 5th DIMENSION so you MUST create as if you are part of something bigger as being apart or separate will no longer be effective.

Read the Emerald Tablets of Thoth - 4/25/11

If you are a Newman or Newoman, or one in waiting, search on Emerald Tablets of Thoth; its available on-line. It is old-paradigm, but if you aspire to being a Purple-Light Adept, this is a must read. Read it at least twice and more if desired.

Thoth was the last Priest-King of Atlantis, built the Great Pyramid at Giza and the Sphinx and ruled Egypt for 36,000 years. He calls Egypt "Khem" and speaks about bringing the people of Khem from barbarous cave dwellers to a civilized people we called the ancient Egyptians.

He left Atlantis, as it was subsiding beneath the waves, with a small group of Priests and other survivors; they left in a Space ship and traveled to what we call Egypt today. Thoth buried his space ship under or in close proximity the Great Pyramid at Giza and it awaits someone with Thoth's power to be retrieved.

Thoth saw the coming destruction of Atlantis in advance and acted to preserve some of the Atlantean technologies in large caves in the Yucatan and the Himalayan Mountains. The Yucatan repository is now underwater and is of little use, but the Himalayan one is fully available.

Thoth foresaw the advent of Purple-energy at the beginning of this new Great Year cycle and arranged to be born here on Earth at this time. Thoth is among us now waiting for the right timing and turns-of-events. The big problem with coming back as a child is that you must, somehow, remember who you are. Then you must gather up the knowledge and things you left behind for your future use.

Light Will Win, Even Against Great Darkness - 4/25/11

We live in a time where everything looks like it is going to Hell in a Handbasket. We are at the end of 13,000 years where Darkness had 80 percent of the power on Planet Earth. Just because Light only had 20%, does not mean it was powerless. Just as with Humans, there are Power protocols in place in the Aeons-long battle between Darkness and Light. Just to be clear, I must define what is Darkness and what is Light; Darkness is the imposition of fear, force and control with a high resistance to change and; Light is freedom, truth, order and civilization with a drive of change for the better.

Purple-energy is Light with oneness or unity properties while Red-energy is Darkness with separateness, apartness, different-than properties.

As an example, Light built up its power over a long time and used that power to create the United States of America in a new continent. All of the Light people, who did not fit in to the prevailing Dark culture of Europe left and moved to America or Australia (Light's other major effort).

Darkness was unconcerned about the US of A for a long time; sure that it could be embroiled in a war and destroyed. 1812 was that war, and the British Army was supposed to defeat Andrew Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans and divide, and pen-in, the young United States. Then the Civil War happened and the Dark divide and conquer forces lost again. Then WW1 where US and Allied Forces defeated the tyrannical German-Austrian Forces.

Darkness became concerned and decided to intervene more directly. Enter the Progressive and Union movements in the United States, what did Darkness have them do? We got the Income Tax and the Federal Reserve. We also got court rulings that made precedence stronger than common law (and common sense). These two things set up the opportunity for Big Government in the 1930s, 1960s and now. Ok, now I am sounding like a Republican, but I am a really a Libertarian. So what, what so wrong about Big Government? Simple, it uses force to re-distribute wealth and create dependency on Government hand-outs for millions of people. It is all about creating an environment of fear, force and control for much of the American population. We just experienced that with the threat of the Government shut-down; what are all of those people going to do if they do not get their social security pensions, military pay and pensions, government worker salaries and pensions, unemployment benefits, etc.

In between, there was WW2 which was an epic battle between Darkness and Light. It appeared that Light won, but it set up a 50-year battle between the US and the Soviet Union. Another name for the Soviets was Reds and yet, another was the "Evil" Empire (Evil is synonymous with Darkness). Europe was still firmly in the hands of Darkness and Socialism flourished, just another form of Big Government Darkness. In the 60s, US-style Big Government really took off, we got the Great Society with welfare, Medicare and Medicaid. It's hard to believe that these incredibly dark (what could be more fearful than threats of death) medical programs were only started in the late 1960s. How did we survive without them for nearly 200 years?

It really looks like Darkness and Big Government has won in Western Europe and the United States; it looks like Light has lost the battle and maybe we Light warriors should surrender. Not so fast, November 2010 was a re-assertion of Light, the Dems (the Party of Big Government) were tossed out of the House of Representatives; can't make a budget without the House. Light is also re-asserting itself in Europe; Big Government is collapsing over there. The Dark forces in Government have run out of other peoples money to spend and they cannot print enough money to get themselves out of the mess. Darkness is beginning to lose its grip on things; on March 1st, 2011, Light had 51% of the Power and is moving rapidly to 80% of the Power on December 21st, 2012 at the start of the next Great Year cycle. Yes, Purple-Light will have 80% of the Power for the next 13,000 years or so.

Now, what about the Stronghold of Darkness? Where Darkness lives on this Planet (Mecca)? The Muslim world is in transition from Darkness to Light. Islam is the most primitive, mainstream culture on the Planet. It's OK to repress women; women do not have rights and may be considered to be property or slaves. It's all about Male dominance and the Jihadist movement is all about keeping women repressed. Have you ever wondered where the women pray in Islam? The Mosques are reserved for men only; do you ever see women mixed in with men when they pray on their prayer rugs. Sorry to say this, but Islam worships Darkness and his name is Allah and he actually emanates from the black stone cube in Mecca.

So what is happening among Allah's people; they are in an uproar and are rejecting their tyrannical rulers. They are also rejecting the imposition of stricter Theocratic governments. The Muslim Brotherhood was supposed to have an easy change-over as it seized control of Egypt; huge majorities of Egyptians want Sharia Law and think its OK to stone women-to-death when they stray. So why hasn't this change-over taken place? Could there be other forces at work? What about Syria? What makes people come out on the street to protest when they know the Dark thugs will shoot at them?

Light always wins against Darkness, but it is tough to live through times when Darkness appears to be winning. Take Heart Light Warrior, the tide has turned.

Sun spots and Solar Flares to Trigger Massive Earth Changes - 5/4/11

Google Sun Spots and Solar Flares and you will read that these are "normal" energetic events that we experience from our Sun. You will also read about a huge increase in the amount of energy we are, and will be, receiving from our Sun. Go read about it – inform yourselves.

Here is what I am receiving, as channeled information, from a being that I call Spirit. This being is above Darkness and Light and much higher than man-made Gods like Jesus, Jehovah, Buddha, and Allah. Because man-kind believes in these Gods, they exist and have certain powers to reward their believers. This was true during the time of worshipping the Greek Gods, the Egyptian Gods, the Norse Gods and the Gods of Sumer.

Sorry, got a little off subject. In an earlier post, I wrote about 2011 being a year of Great Change. While the Earth is capable of Earthquakes, Volcanoes, and Tsunamis/Tidal Waves, it is rare to witness Pole Shifts and Large Subsidences of Land. Port Royal, in Jamaica, disappeared beneath about 20 feet of water in the 1750s and underwater cities have been discovered in coastal waters off India. So, these subsidences do happen, but not big ones.

When a Pole Shift and/or large-scale Land Subsidences are going to occur, large amounts of energy from our Sun always trigger them. We are at a place, during a major shift between Darkness/Light and Red/Purple energies as well as the completion/beginning of a 25,920 Year, Great Year cycle where large amounts of solar energy is being made available for changes here on Earth.

Our scientists know about previous Pole Shifts, Tectonic Plate shifts, Inter Glacial Periods and believe that these things occur gradually over long periods of time. Not true, they are like Earthquakes that happen when there is too much energy and it must be released. Pole Shifts and large Land Subsidences, like the 10 Islands of Atlantis only occur when Solar Tsunamis hit the Earth. When too much solar energy enters our world, the Tectonic Plates get energized and any imbalance caused by the shifting weight of melting ice will be re-balanced by Pole Shifts and large-scale upheavals and subsidences of the Earth's landmasses. The water metaphor is really the energy metaphor, except for the occasional earth-changing energy from our Sun.

This is how the new North Pole will be 300 miles East and a little North of Moscow, in Russia. The entire Arctic Ocean will pour into Western-Central Russia, collapse it and create a new ocean with depths of several hundred feet. This is how much of mainland China will collapse into a shallow sea of about 200 feet deep. Same for the Mississippi Sea, the Amazon Sea, the Saharan Sea and the Arabian Sea which covers the entire Arabian Peninsula.

I guess the Doomsday sayers are right. Our world will become a very different place; much less land and much more water. The Pole Shift, this time, will be about 30 degrees with 15 degrees gradual and 15 degrees sudden. The bad news is that the events mentioned above are all going to happen before December 21st, 2012. When we start the new cycle on this level and about five levels above us, all of the equalizing energy releases will have been completed.

With the sudden demise of Billions of People with their carbon footprints and food, shelter and warmth requirements, our world will go through a mini Global Cooling stage, but will quickly revert to an extended period of long growing seasons. Those of us that are "Left Behind" will have shifted into beings of Higher Energy and Greater Capabilities and Unified Civilization than we have now.

Be well Newmen and Newmen-in-waiting.

Read a book called, "Thinking and Destiny" - 5/5/11

For those of you who like what you read here, I have another book for you to read. Thinking and Destiny was written by Harold Percival during the late 1940s and it was published in 1954 because of paper shortages from World War II. This work, like mine, is all channeled information from Spirit.

The information in Thinking and Destiny, hereafter called T&D, is unique; you will not find similar insights in any other book. T&D is "gated"; meaning that you cannot go any faster than it will let you. In my case, sometimes I had to read a particular paragraph or page several times before I could continue. Frequently, I was put asleep after completing one of these "read-many-times" episodes. I suspect this was to allow my Spirit-mind to absorb or process the information.

If you have been lead to this blog and are being prompted (from within) to read this book, know this; you can do it. It may take a while, but persevere and it will be worthwhile. There are, perhaps, 2,000 people who have completed this book, but the energetic shift has already happened and it is easier to read now.

Reading, thinking about and "Grokking" the insights in this book while enable you to advance faster and further through Adept, Vertical Master, Horizontal Master and Mahatma Degrees of Fire-power.

Eternal Order of Progression – Why are People so Different? 5/5/11

In my last post, I recommended reading T&D; that is where I got my original information on the Eternal Order of Progression. Since then, I have added to it, especially in the DNA aspects I will share with you today.

So, what the Hell is the Eternal Order of Progression? If you are an individualized Spirit watching and waiting for your opportunity to come down here into the Physical or Dense, Hard Reality, you have to earn your place here. You start out by being a rock, say cooled lava as you are a fire-being. Then you graduate through granite and sand and silver and gold. As silver and gold, you are touched by and worn by Humans. Humans had the most energy of progression here, so, you wanted to be held or touched to get to that energy; it was transformatory and allowed you to become a plant.

As a plant, you wanted to be eaten by Humans, again to get to that transformatory energy of progression, but you are eaten by lower level animals first and graduate to being eaten by Humans; that is how you become transformed into a low-level animal. As an animal, you are in-turn, eaten by other animals until you can be eaten by Humans. You keep progressing until you become a Human and then there are other things to progress into.

Stop. Think. Let this sink in.

This is why we have all of the food that we eat at the Grocery Store; we have the cereals, grains, vegetables, meat, fish and poultry sitting there wanting to be eaten by Humans so that the underlying, permanent cell structures can be exposed to the energy of progression within Humans. It is polite to thank Spirit for the food we are about to eat, but we are actually doing Spirit's work by eating everyday. We help everything around us to progress into something that has more awareness. This is how we are all ONE.

This means that rocks, sand, trees, snakes, chickens, fish, pigs, cattle, sheep and water are all filled with some level of awareness. Ask yourself, what is the best possible way to get inside of a Human to access the energy of progression? Water or Coffee or Tea or Coke or Juice is absolutely the best way; you stand in line, wait your turn and get imbibed by animal after animal until you reach Humans. What happens to water after it is drunk; it gets pissed away within hours ready to be imbibed again (after some processing).

So know this Human; you are the product of Aeons of growth from rock to what you are now – treat your brothers in progression with respect.

Now, Why are people so different. As we come up through the animal kingdom, we get to be elephants, bears, wolves and big cats and then we get to be turtles, whales and dolphins increasing our awareness as we go. Then we get to be domesticated animals and live around mankind always getting more of that energy of progression. Then we get to be cats and dogs where we can be groomed, and hugged and cuddled and walked and, most of all, loved. This love energy is the most powerful energy of progression.

OK. We, finally, arrive at being a Human. What does this mean? Human all have at least one double-helix strand of the most complex DNA. In reality, that double strand of DNA has at least four more around it that are not visible; there's that number 5 again. So, a basic Human has a double strand with four invisible strands. Ok, that Human progresses to one double strand with four invisible strands and another eight invisible strands around it. Count them, that is one double strand with twelve invisible single strands around them; there's that number 14 again, which is really a 5. It's the Creator Number.

So, we have a basic Human with one double strand with 12; that Human progresses to 2 double strands with 4 and/or 12 and then 3 double strands with 4 and/or 12. People with 3 double strands or less, can be considered to be Basic Humans. This is the vast majority of the Human population.

So, now Humans progress to having 4 double strands with 4 and/or 12 and then 5 and then 6 double strands; these can be considered to be Advanced Humans. The Human with 6 double strands is a Newman in waiting and must obtain the essential insights to progress to the next stage of progression to 7, 8 and 9 double strands; these are what I call Newmen. I AM THE FIRST NEWMAN.

Earth 2 is Where All the Basic Humans are Going - 5/5/11

Google the concept of Earth 2; it is an identical Earth just a split-second behind the Earth we all live on. It is a world where the Nazis won World War II and are in a decades-long war with the United States. It is very much the same, but different in many ways. The people on Earth 2 have killed each other so efficiently that they need a new infusion of Basic Humans.

Earth 1, this planet, is going through a transition to a higher energetic state for Planets. This is the first time a Planet has gotten to this state.

There's a problem Houston, Earth 1 has too many low vibration Humans; those with 1, 2 and 3 double strands of DNA and these Basic Humans in their billions must be moved to a new home. This can be done in 2 ways; billions can lose their lives in catastrophic Earth Changes, Pole Shifts, Tsunamis, Subsidences and Dis-eases or they can quietly, but efficiently be transported to Earth 2. The catastrophic return to Spirit is always accompanied with great collective fear and angst that must be worked through in many subsequent lifetimes; not a great solution.

Option 2 is a much better solution, but it also has its aspects of fear which must be managed. If you wake up one day and find the people around you have disappeared, you wonder where they have gone to, you miss them and, more importantly, you wonder why you were left behind. This can cause anxiety.

Fear not. Option 2 will be implemented by sending Humans with 1 double strand of DNA first. They will go to sleep one night and wake up on Earth 2 with a whole new cultural reset of their memories; its just a half-second behind us and not difficult. As more and more Basic Humans 1 leave our Earth, then Basic Humans 2 and 3 will make the transition. Before this shift to Earth 2 is complete, some, but not all of Advanced Humans 4 will wake up on Earth 2 as well. These are Humans oriented towards Darkness and Red-energy.

When this process is completed, 6.7 billion people will be moved to Earth 2. Earth 2 is still in Dark-energy and Red-energy and the new arrivals will be very comfortable with that energy. This will leave around 300 million, high energy, Light-energy and Purple-energy people on Earth 1. The Eternal Order of Progression is preserved, just in different places.

Earth 2 is where the Mayans traveled to when they left so suddenly and completely. They are very Dark and Red.

Earth Changes and Pole Shift Update for 2011 - 5/23/11

I shared this in an email with a newly configured Newman and thought I should add it to the Blog here on Hexahedron1. The information that I am getting from my conversations with my Inner Being or Guide or Spirit Self or Holy Ghost are telling me that most of the massive Earth Changes will be completed in 2011, not 2012.

This is in response to a question as to whether I would publish an Earth Changes Map.

There are several Earth Changes related maps showing the Mississippi Sea and the subsidence in California, Oregon, Washington and Arizona. A few show a significant subsidence in South Florida including the Keys. No, I have not created a maps based on my visions. Will I? Am getting a "no" internally. Am also getting that Long Island will be largely gone east of a line from Block Island south; yes, the Hamptons will be gone, too.

On the Pole Shift:

In June, July, August, September, October, November and December of this Year (2011), there will be significant Solar Flares several times per month. The North Pole has already "wandered" 3 degrees eastward and that has not alarmed anyone as the Pole has been "wandering" for decades. In June, the Pole will "wander" another 3-4 degrees eastward due to several Solar Flares. In July, more Solar Flare activity will drive the Pole eastward 4-5 degrees; this will start to alarm the authorities. In August, more Solar Flare activity will drive the Pole eastward 5-7 degrees. In September, we will get a Solar Tsunami Flare and the Pole will shift 12-15 degrees, suddenly. This will make the Euro-Asian landmass the most Northerly landmass on Earth. Europe will be in the sub-Arctic zone; the UK and Ireland will still be warmed by the Gulf Stream, but they will have colder winters.

When the Pole shifts suddenly, the entire Arctic Ocean will shift into what is now Eastern-Central Russia and it will collapse beneath the sudden weight. The Russian Ocean will connect to the Black Sea making Europe an island-continent. The Mississippi Sea will be created during this sudden Pole Shift as will the Isles of California et al (much of Oregon, Washington State and Idaho will subside beneath the waves), and South Florida, Cuba, Haiti/DR, Jamaica, Caymans and Puerto Rico. All of North Africa sinks to the Atlas Mtns; all of the Sahara Desert. Most of China, Japan, Philippines, Borneo, Indonesia, Bangladesh, coastal India, coastal Pakistan, coastal Iran. This all happens in September 2011.

There are several Tsunami Flares coming in September and still more in October, November and December. In October, the Amazon River will become the Amazon Sea. There will be more destruction in China and Japan. What is left of Africa will be broken into three large islands with significant salt water seas between them. In November, Iceland will sink beneath the waves, as will the entire Saudi Arabian Peninsula, Jordan, southern Iraq, southern Syria (Damascus will become a seaport), all of Israel, southern Lebanon. The Caspian Sea will link up with the Persian Gulf and Teheran will cease to exist; Iran will cease to be a threat to the world. In December, the destruction of China and Japan and the Koreas and the Far Eastern Russia will be complete with some islands sticking up from current higher elevations. All of the cities in these places will be utterly destroyed. Madagascar and Sri Lanka will both sink. Taiwan, Okinawa, Iwo Jima, Guam and Micronesia will all be spared.

We have seven months of massive Earth upheavals coming that are all being driven by massive Solar Flares that activate our tectonic plates. Everywhere on Earth is going to experience earthquakes, tsunamis/tidal waves, volcanoes reawakened and new. Mexico City will experience a 14+ earthquake that lasts for 5-6 minutes; same with China, Japan, the Philippines, but multiple times. In the US, the New Madrid fault will experience a 16+ that will cause the western side of the Mississippi River to subside. This will cause the Gulf of Mexico to flow into the exposed fault and cause a subsidence on the eastern side of the river. Austin and Dallas will be seaports. Biloxi, Mississippi will be the eastern end of the Mississippi Sea; Houston, Memphis, New Orleans and most cities along the Mississippi River will be gone. St Louis and Phoenix will be seaports.

There are several safe zones in the US; Kansas, Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, Eastern Arizona/New Mexico, Northern Florida/South-west Georgia, Tennessee. While much of Europe will not experience major changes, it will be an area of extreme seismic and volcanic activity; not a safe zone. Other safe zones include most of Central and Eastern Canada; and Australia. Everywhere else will experience massive shifting of the Earth, earthquakes, volcanoes, tsunamis and coastal subsidences.

When we get to 2012, all of these changes will be completed, but that is when the diseases will hit the survivors hard. By the end of 2012, there will be 300 million people left mostly in the US, Canada and Australia. Canada will become part of the US; as will Mexico. This means that 6.7 billion people are leaving to return to Spirit. When the Pole Shift happens, Canada will have a climate similar to the US now and the US will have the equator running through it and have a Tropical climate. No more Hurricanes or Tornadoes; they shift towards the new Africa. Australia also moves closer to the Equator and becomes warmer.

Most of the surviving Europeans and South Americans come to the US and Canada, but about a third go to Australia. For some reason, the US Virgin Islands is also a safe zone or I would not be here. There are practically no survivors from Africa, the Middle-East, India, Indonesia, the Philippines, Japan or China; that is most of the people on the planet.

There will be more severe Solar Flares in 2012, but I am not getting the information now. In October or November, I will be able to add more for the first half of 2012. My impression is that the "Earth Changes" in 2012 are going to be "finishing" changes and will not be as threatening to the survivors.

What about 2012, Is it the End of the World? 5/23/11

Yes, it is. It is the end of the World as we know it. It is very different, but much, much better.

Already, in 2011, the world is changing before our very eyes. Look at the "Arab Spring", everyone is expecting all of these Arab countries to go the way of Iran and repressive Islamic Republics ruled by Sharia Law. The energy that we have moved into no longer supports that form of insanity.

Where else? Big Government is dying before our very eyes as well. Communism has already died and Socialism has run out of other peoples money to spend. Lavish salaries, benefits and retirements for Public Workers all around the world are being revoked; not enough money. In the US, Big Unions are dying and Entitlement Programs like Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid are on the chopping block. This is all related to the shift in energy from darkness to Light and Red to Purple and cannot be reversed.

In my previous post, I describe the massive changes that will be made in our world. Billions of us are leaving abruptly in catastrophic events all over the globe.

WHY? Why are 6.7 billion people leaving so quickly? Here's the answer; humanity has evolved into a new level of advancement – Newmen. These Newmen are all very high vibrational beings and are mostly women. This has never happened on all of the billions of planets in the nine local universes or the multi-verse, before. This Newman and Newwoman evolution offers another "never happened before" opportunity to the evolution of our Planet aka Gaia. Because of the 300 million high vibration beings here, Gaia has the opportunity to raise her own vibrations to become a more highly evolved Planet. I know this is a tough concept to wrap your minds around, but Gaia is like a giant Hot-Air-Balloon with the balloon filled trying to get off the ground. The problem is that there are too many sandbags on the basket holding Gaia down. Those sandbags are the 6.7 billion low or too low vibrational people keeping Gaia from ascending Spiritually.

This is bigger than Humanity, as important as Humans are to Spirit. This is all about a 2-4-1, the establishment of ascended, higher Spiritual level Newmen on an ascended, higher Spiritual level Gaia. What this means is that Newmen and Gaia are much more capable to doing Spirits work.

So what happens to all of those billions of people? They leave their bodies and return to Spirit to rest, evaluate, recuperate and plan their next lives. Every single one, including the billions who have already returned to Spirit, have experienced the significant growth in our Planet Gaia's vibrations. That growth included significant vibrational growth in every Human here as well and that experience will be important to many other planets trying to do the same thing throughout the Multiverse. The Humans from Earth-Gaia will be distributed throughout the Milky Way Galaxy with many of them going to Earth 2 described in a previous post.

So what about the survivors, those left-behind. Unlike the popular Christian book series, the Newmen and Newmen in waiting will be the most highly evolved Humans on all of the billions of planets in the Multiverse. How can that be?

In an earlier post, I claimed that the Ascended Master paradigm was broken and that no one had ever vibrated themselves beyond the 5th level of 9. The objective of vibrating ourselves back up to the 9th and then, the 1th or ONE layer was not working out after aeons of time and effort. The Bible refers to Lucifer – the Light Bearer taking one-third of the host of heaven into Darkness; it is actually correct, but not fully. Two of the One's most powerful Angels proposed a new approach to get around the failed Ascended Master approach. They divided the 9 local universes into 3 sequentially. Lucifer took 2,5 and 8; Michael took 3,6 and 9 and Spirit kept 1,4 and 7. Lucifer's experiment was to keep his three local universes in 80% darkness and 20% light; Michael's were 80% Light and 20% darkness and Spirit kept the control at 50% each.

The trouble for Earth began because it was on the edge between local Universe 8 and 9 and thus, received periodic blasts of 80% Light and Dark. It was the only Planet to receive these "outside-the-experiment" energy bursts. After a while, the One/Spirit noticed that there was something unusual happening on Earth/Gaia; the growth in vibrations, and thus, technology, was advancing much more quickly than any other planet in the experiments. Soon, all of the hosts of heaven were watching us, here on Earth. More importantly, all of the Spiritually advanced beings from all of the billions of planets (around 100,000 beings) wanted to come to Earth; to be born here as Humans, especially during the shift from Darkness to Light and Red to Purple. This can be called the "Shift-of-the-Ages". These advanced beings got in-line and are all here for what we are about to go through. A few are in their 80s, but most are in their 40s age-wise; Many are in their 20s. These are the Newmen and Newwomen or those in waiting. The vast majority of the 300 million are those who got here, by hook or by crook, to be sling-shot into higher vibrations and advancement into higher level beings; this is why the new age movement is so very big on this planet.

The Earth has been under this incredible focus for about 1,000 years and "normal" conflicts between Darkness and Light have been interfered with. Light always wins against Darkness and Light was permitted to help Humans create the United States of America and Australia as places for Light-oriented people to go to. Light-oriented people are higher in vibration than Dark-oriented people like High-pressure weather systems are higher in vibration than low-pressure systems; one brings bright, sunny days while the other brings tornadoes and hurricanes.

It is no accident (there are no accidents), that Light overcame Darkness in WW1, WW2, Korea, Vietnam, the Cold War/Communism and now, Big Government/Socialism.

How Our World Will Change – Solar Flares Install a new Operating System - 5/26/11

I have written about the massive Pole Shift and Earth Changes coming and the fact that a series of Tsunami Solar Flares will excite/activate our tectonic plates and be causative in the Pole Shift. I have also written about moving into the energies of Aquarian Light and Purple Oneness.

OK. So what? Perhaps even, Big Deal. Yes, IT IS A BIG FUCKING DEAL!!!

We are all energy beings and everything around is made from energy as well. There are energy templates for everything here. There is the concept of a bed, a chair, a stove, a Refrigerator (evolved from an Ice Box), Knives, Forks and Spoons. There are templates for People; White/Caucasian, Black, Chinese, Indian, Arab and all the other peoples as well as blonde, brunette and red head. There are also templates for cars, planes, trains, ships, boats, bicycles, skis and new ones like snow boards. There are also keyboards, laptops, smart phones, mouse(s)/mice, monitors (evolved from CRTs), ETC.

We are just completing a 25,920 year-cycle called a Great Year. We are about to enter a new Great Year on December 21st, 2012. With the new Great Year, we are all receiving a brand new operating system and it is so much bigger than Windows/Mac/Linux.

The Earth/Gaia is also an Energetic Being with much more awareness than the average Human; she uses the awareness of all of US and connects us into being One, here in the physical. This new operating system is being installed into the Earth/Gaia as a software update for the new Great Year. As part of this update, all of the energy templates are being updated. ALL OF THEM!

What does this mean? In addition to the mundane, there are energy templates for marriage, family, churches, schools, colleges/universities, courts, banks, stock markets, police, prisons, health care, drugs, pharmaceuticals, natural healing. All of these, and more, will be significantly CHANGED. All of those pills you take to "Manage" your health care issues will stop working – find an alternative/Natural practitioner soon.

Remember, we have moved from Darkness into Light; that means we are no longer motivated by Fear, Force and Control and we no longer resist change. Our old energy Governments have not figured this out – yet; especially when it comes to TAXES. Is the new energy going to support Big Government, Big Military, Big Unions and Big Public Sector SPENDING? NO. Is Purple Oneness energy going to support the concept of "Robbing from Peter to Pay Paul? Again, NO, that is so old energy.

When the Government tells you they are going to take care of you, they are really saying "Trust Us" we have everything under control. But, once you are used to be controlled, they change the game over-and-over-and-over again and you, have no power. One of the big changes coming is a return to SELF-RELIANCE and RESPONSIBILITY FOR YOUR ACTIONS. Darkness is control and fear; Light is freedom and choices that you have.

For those of you who have a problem with what I am writing, click to another site, you will be leaving this Planet soon; you are part of the problem. The issue is that there are so many of you.

In June 2011, the first large Solar Flares will hit Earth/Gaia. They will bring energy for the Pole Shift, a massive worldwide financial collapse (templates changing) and new, X-Men-like powers to Newmen, Newmen-in-waiting and, even, Advanced Humans. As more-and-more Solar Flares hit us, more and more energetic template changes will arrive.

In January 2012, the Solar Flares will bring epidemic diseases that will carry away the remaining, low-vibration Humans. If you are a High-vibration Human/Newman, fear not; the Solar Flare energy does not come for you. For low-vibration Humans, there is something you can do. PAY ATTENTION HERE. USE YOUR FOCUS ability and YOUR WILLPOWER. Start a two-way dialogue with that voice inside of you; that is the ONLY way you can raise your vibrations. Put away all of those distractions you use to avoid this internal conversation; you do not have any time to waste.

If you are not sure whether you are a low-vibration Human or not, assume/act that you are, indeed, low-vibration and start "talking" to yourself. Trust me, this is the act of a very Sane person when considering the alternative.

The World is Changing – Who Will Lead Us – Is there a Great Savior? 5/27/11

Most Humans are oriented towards DARKNESS; they are fearful, and want to be told what to do, where to go for safety are a quite willing to be controlled and, even, forced to do things. They just extended the "Patriot" Act!!!!

With the shift in energies towards Light (freedom, truth, choice, order, self-reliance, self-responsibility and change-for-the-better), most Humans will be very uncomfortable in this new energy. That is one reason so many Humans are leaving to go ELSEWHERE – they cannot handle the Shift in Energies.

Those of us who are Left-Behind are all Advanced Humans, Newmen-in-waiting and Newmen. Every single one will have Fire Powers at the Adept level or higher. What does this mean? These Adepts are "becoming" in the new energy of Aquarius and Purple and the new, Great Year; they will not be as limited as the Dark Adepts of the past. Everyone will be "connected" to their Inner Being or Guide and "know" what to do, when to do it and with whom, but this will all be voluntary, not based on fear, force or control.

Everyone will have lives in the thousands of years in healthy, youthful bodies. Children will be few in numbers and will be treasured above everything else. Work is a four-letter word; it will cease to be so hard. Most labor will be using mental and physical powers, not muscles. Money, or, a better word – Resources, will be far easier. Everyone will find what they are supposed to be doing and have the resources to do it.

Kinda sounds like Heaven on Earth, doesn't it? Heaven is in the Spirit realm, but this new, Spirit-Guided world will be far different than the old.

So who is going to Lead us? The answer is obvious; we are going to lead ourselves in partnership with Spirit. For the cynical out there, the Newmen/Newwomen are the most advanced beings, based on vibrational levels and they will be listened to. But, as I said above, everyone here will be connected and guided by their Inner Beings. So – if we are all guided by Spirit, the conflicts should be very minor.

Out of 300 million survivors, the vast majority of them are women and they will assume dominion over the running of the world. Women become autonomous, heads of household, companies and what limited Government there is. Men will have respected niche roles and be appreciated in their roles by women. There is no Fear, Force or Control in this new World. Women-on-women relationships will become the norm. Women will be told when they can have a child by their Inner Beings and be guided to the right father or choice of fathers. No Big Brother or Big Government watching and/or telling you what you may do. No other Spirit-in-a-body (Human/Newman) telling you what you must do.

So, you ask yourself when this new, wonderful world is coming into being. The answer will surprise you; it has been coming since about 1960 in the United States slowly. It will now accelerate to 99% completion by December 21st, 2012 and the last 1% will be completed by December 21, 2016.

Important Steps to take for Newwomen and Newmen - 5/28/11

I've discussed the how of the Pole Shift and the massive Earth Changes; it has NOTHING to do with a Comet. The Comet is a total side-show, but is a sign in the sky that momentous changes are taking place.

Solar Flares from our Sun, SOL, are providing ALL of the energy for the Pole Shift and Earth Changes.

You Advanced Humans and Newwomen/Newmen need to ALLOW yourselves to tune into the energy of these Solar Flares; this is how you will get the X-men-like powers that are waiting for you. This will be a bit stressful; but well worth it.

For those with DNA configurations of at least 5, Fire-Being ADEPT powers will be installed like the installation of a new app on your Smart Phone or

Pad. The trouble is that you will not have the permission to access these powers unless you allow yourself to do so explicitly!

These Solar Flare downloads will begin in June, next month, and continue through the end of the 2011. TUNE-IN and ALLOW!!!

The Moon has already had a Pole Shift – See for Yourself - 5/28/11

This Solar Flare energy is not just hitting the Earth -it has caused the Moon to shift its (the Moon's) axis approximately 90 degrees. The Moon looks like it on it's side.

Why hasn't this been the big NEWS on this planet? Holy Shit, they are scared out of their friggin' minds.

OK. So what does this mean? I have already commented on the source of the energy to make the Earth shift her Pole; its going to be about 30 degrees or 1,800 Nautical Miles (6,000 feet). The Solar Flare energy is also the source of energy for ALL of the Earth Changes. It is also the source of energy for the Moon's Polar Shift.

There is more to it than that. Earlier, I asked Advanced Humans, Newmen and Newwomen to Tune-in to the Solar Flare energy and Allow the re-programming to happen and Allow the powers to become.

Being a male, I am focused on the Sun and the Solar Flares coming directly from the Sun. Just as the Earth has a female awareness, we call Gaia, the Sun has a male awareness, whose name is Sol. I communicate with both of them.

Feminine energy has always come from the Moon; All of you Newwomen know this and may have been a bit puzzled. So here is an update just for you Advanced Women and Newwomen; you make up 90 percent, or more, of all the 300 million survivors.

Even though I was not focused on the Moon, it has been receiving a huge amount of Solar energy that it has converted to Feminine Newwomen energy. The signal that all was in readiness for women to tune-in and start drawing on the Moon's Newoman energy was the Moon's Polar Shift.

It is time for all of you Advanced Females to TUNE-IN to the Moon's Energy and ALLOW. Have fun with it.

June 2011

Welcome June – This is the beginning of Major Energetic Changes - 6/1/11

For all of you concerned about $MONEY, keeping what you have or getting more. The rules have changed at an Energetic Level. Sorry, your Stock Broker does not know what the new rules are.

All, or nearly all, of you $Billionaires out there are going to lose at least 90 percent of your money – quickly. You say not possible, you have a diversified portfolio and you own primo company stocks and bonds. It is hard to understand, but some of us have had an ability to build energetic storage devices where they accumulated energy; kind of like visualizing an Olympic-sized swimming pool or a good sized lake with a dam. This is how people become Billionaires. Instead of living from paycheck to paycheck, these people use some kind of personal Power to create these MONEY containers and the money pours in. Have you ever wondered how it is possible to amass 1000 or 2000 Million Dollars; this is how.

The problem for the Billionaires is that the energy they used to build their Money containers is no longer available to maintain them. They used Dark and Red energies to build the foundation of their fortunes. Guess What Pilgrim? Their Money Containers are turning into sieves with larger and larger holes and the money will begin to go elsewhere in June.

We, all, on our planet, are about to encounter a complete, Global Financial Meltdown. It will start in the EU with the default of Greece, Ireland, Spain and Italy; it will be spread by the unexpected collapse of the Yuan, the Chinese currency; and it will be completed by the default of the US Dollar. The Japanese Yen will also collapse; it is on the edge now. So, what happens after that? All of the debt can no longer be sustained and it will collapse like a house-of-cards or the speculator bubble it is. All of the debt is digital and it will fall to near zero, including the $14 Trillion in US National Debt. The sieves are opening wide and all of the "old" Dark/Red wealth accumulation is disappearing like it never was.

As a world, we are too used to the idea of Money and Credit Cards and that will not go away. With the Euro gone, the English Pound and the German Mark will be the most desired currencies in Europe, but the collapse of the Yuan and Yen will force the world to turn to the re-valued US Dollar. From an American perspective, we must find a way to get rid of the Idiot we have in our White House. Perhaps impeachment. He, Obama, used his energy container for electoral-votes-money storage and got elected without a background or experience. He, Obama, is perhaps, the most powerful of the Dark/Red Adepts on the planet and used that Power to get himself to a position where he could do the most damage to Light's major creation here – the United States of America.

Fortunately, Obama, and others of his ilk, are losing their energy containers this summer; he has no chance of being re-elected as he has the WRONG energy and his container/s will be totally dysfunctional.

These events are actually good news for the people oriented towards the Light and Purple energies. All we have to do is use our own Powers to build an energetic Money Container, seal it, and watch it fill up with Money and other useful energies. This sounds easy enough, but its not. If you are a Light-worker, open yourself up to Purple Energy, then open yourself up to the energy from SOL, you know, our Sun or Luna, our Moon. Then you must have a conversation with your Guide or Inner Being. Yes, you will be able to create a Money Container, but your Guide must agree on how big it is and when you can start "drawing" from it.

What is the "Anomaly" Next to Our Sun? 6/2/11

There's Buzz on the Internet about a large planet-sized object next to our Sun. See <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y0lyWZo2jDw>

According to Sol, the aware being located in the Sun, a new planet is being birthed. Even though it is many times larger than Earth now, it is Earth 2 and will be placed in our Earth orbit, opposite us; we will not be able to see each other directly as the Sun will be in the way.

It will take 100,000 orbits (Years) or so to cool down and solidify enough to be populated with plants, animals and Humans, but that is not its purpose now. For now, it will become a "place-holder" for Earth 1/Gaia so that we can go "elsewhere".

Not sure where we are going, but the when is relatively soon. This new planet must be moved into the correct orbit and that will take some time. After it is in orbit opposite us, the Solar system will be balanced and Earth 1 can be released to leave for our appointment with Destiny.

What is happening on Earth1 now is "mind-blowing" to Spirit; when we get to December 21st, 2012, we do not just start a new Great Year cycle. We are at the beginning of five (5) simultaneous, greater cycles above the Great Year the longest of which is measured in billions of years. What we are doing here, now, is of absolutely, incredible, essential importance to Spirit or All or the One/1 or the Supreme Being.

Darkness will not be allowed to Screw things up as much as it may try.

The Super E-Coli Dis-ease Breakout - 6/2/11

If you are oriented towards the LIGHT, do not be concerned! If you are oriented towards Fear, Force, Control and No Change (DARKNESS), oh Shit oh Dear; its time to put your affairs in order. Bye-bye.

The Media is reporting a super E-coli bacteria breakout in Europe with finger-pointing as to where it came from and no drugs or treatments to prevent an epidemic breakout. It seems that THEY cannot detect this deadly darling and they are telling everyone not to eat raw veggies any more; imagine, you cannot eat "healthy". This super bug is spreading throughout the World and it is just the first one.

For more practical advice for you Light-Workers out there, put an "energetic" shield around yourself. If you are male, tune-in and connect to SOL; ask for a dis-ease protection shield and when you get a "Yes", you will be protected. You males will need this shield more than the females. For females, tune-in to LUNA and ask for your dis-ease protection shield.

What are the "Crystal Grids" and What Do They Do? 6/2/11

Many New Agers have been reading and following Kryon (www.kryon.com) and the Crimson Circle (www.crimsoncircle.com); there is lots of good information in these two sites. Kryon, of Magnetic Service, and his team, came here to put up something he calls "the Crystal Grid"; it is a three-layered energetic shield that surrounds the Earth, surrounds the Moon and, a larger one that surrounds both the Earth and the Moon.

These Crystal Grids were completed and made strong on March 1st, 2011. For any of you who are concerned about Comets or Asteroids hitting the Earth or the Moon; DO NOT BE CONCERNED. With the Crystal Grids in place, the energy of any incoming space object will be absorbed and used to bounce the object away from Earth. Same with any glancing blow.

This applies to any Space-based Alien Races that mean harm to the inhabitants of Planet Earth (Earth1) like the Greys and Reptilians. They use big space rocks to destroy the planet defenses and civilizations of Planets that they want for themselves.

This Crystal Grid defensive shield also applies to Nibiru, the Home Planet of the Annunaki. Nibiru was placed in a "holding" orbit in our Solar System well out beyond Pluto; it is no longer a 30 degree retrograde, 3,600 year elliptical orbit. It is the Planet that Astronomers are calling Planet "X". Nibiru is a mobile Planet; it uses natural Diamonds as fuel to move around.

It's problem is that it used up all of the Diamonds it has and it is trying to get a huge stock-pile of Diamonds that have been gathered, here on Earth, for it's use. Jehovah, of the Old Testament, was really En-Lil of the Annunaki and Abraham made a "covenant" with En-Lil to supply many diamonds to the Annunaki when they returned. The Annunaki return was disrupted by the ongoing events here on Earth.

So, the Chosen People, the Jews, are sitting on at least three large stockpiles of Diamonds waiting to fulfill their part of the Covenant. The Chosen People have controlled the diamond trade for thousands of years. When you buy that diamond for your sweetie or yourself, it is really an irradiated sapphire or an artificial diamond. All the spectrometers were removed from the Jewelry business in the 1970s so it is very difficult to tell what stone you are wearing. Of course, if it is GIA certified, then it is genuine? Sure. Sapphires are very hard and will scratch glass; they also sparkle like a diamond when cut like a diamond.

There is a rather large problem with this whole idea of giving the Annunaki these three hoards of Diamonds; they have not asked Gaia if she will allow it. They just assumed that they could make this deal and proceeded to put the biggest con ever into operation for thousands of years. Some will call this "Hate" speech, but it is just a different historical perspective. Go out to eBay and buy yourself a spectrometer with instructions on how to tell the difference between diamonds and sapphires based on their light-refractions. Go ahead and test your Diamonds. You can also tell the difference between any other gem stones using this old, suppressed technology. So why is this technology suppressed?

Anyway, I digress, Gaia has had several run-ins with Nibiru in the past and hasn't come out on the winning side; Nibiru is about four-times larger than Earth and had four large moons, two of which were used to smack Tiamut. According to Sumerian Clay Tablets and Zecharia Sitchin, Gaia/Earth was a planet twice as large as now, called Tiamut. In a prolonged encounter with Nibiru, she was split into two halves; one became Gaia/Earth and the other become the "asteroid belt." Not much love lost between Gaia and Nibiru; Nibiru is male and essentially "raped" Tiamut and nearly killed her. There is no way on Earth, that Gaia will allow her Diamonds to be sent to Nibiru. Besides, Nibiru is not coming through again any time soon; all that effort, thousands of years, for naught. This information may explain why the Jews have had so many bad things happen to them.; Gaia has not been their friend.

I am NOT anti-Jewish; my Great-Grandmother was a practicing Jew, my Grandmother, her daughter, was a non-practicing Jew, my Mother, her daughter, is a non-practicing Jew; that makes me a Jew, by maternal decent, but I, too, am non-practicing. This obsession with Diamonds for the Anunaki must stop and besides, we may want to use those Diamonds as fuel for ourselves.

As I said recently, what is happening on Earth right now, is far too important to allow any, ANY, event to interfere with it.

Connect The Dots - 6/4/11

What are THEY up to? You know, our leaders who know that our Planet is in a Big Change Mode. The Russians are claiming that the Former IMF Leader, Strauss-Kahn, has been jailed because he found out that ALL the US Gold is gone.

Think about it; there is a fully-funded US GOVT program called COG or Continuity of Government. It was originally dreamed up in the 50s as underground, quite comfortable places for our government officials and their families, to ride out a Nuclear Strike from the bad, old Soviet Union. The Russians have their hidy-holes too. There is Mount Weather, just west of Washington, DC, but it was compromised. It is a hollowed-out mountain with lodging, food, water, medical and weapons for 5,000 lucky people. There are many of these "hidy-holes" that we built to ride-out a post-nuclear strike scenario. But the bad, old Soviet Union went away; that is when they all got turned into "Survival" Centers for Armageddon.

That is where all the Gold has gone; you don't think THEY were going to leave all that Gold to be destroyed or messed-with or looted do you. After all, these people are our own government; somehow, they are entitled to take the Gold with them.

So, our government knows the Pole is shifting about in a rather unstable way; they know the Moon has had a 90 degree Pole Shift; they know we are experiencing wild weather changes; they know the Planet's magnetic field is at zero; they know that, without a magnetic field to shield us from Solar Flares, lots more Solar Flare energy will get through; they know that this could be very dangerous to Human life, better err on the safe side.

They are now moving into there "hidy-holes". Using the Summer Vacation syndrome to move all of the families in and gradually empty Washington DC and the Regional Centers of government; then they "button-up" and wait. If we come "knocking on their door", they will shoot us; they have no vacancies. One day soon, we will wake up and wonder, where has our government gone to? and we will see our President on the TV and the Internet, but not at the White House or Camp David. We may even see Congress, in-session, but not at the Capital Building. What the F, do they know something that we don't. Hey, wait a minute, what about us? Is this Winning the Future?

Fear not Grasshopper, this is SO OLD ENERGY behavior. These Dark and Red Assholes really think that they can survive what's coming by building the best "hidy-holes" that money can buy. NOT, NOT, NOT

Remember, the Shift of the Ages, the shift from Dark and Red energies to Light and Purple energies. Well, folks, the Dark and Red energy people are leaving in vast numbers, even if they are hiding out in their hidy-holes.

For those of us who are oriented towards the Light and Purple energies, the Solar Flare energies are not coming for us. That may not sound scientific enough, but we are all energetic beings first and physical beings second. These changes are at the energetic level and trump the physical level resistances.

EMBRACE THE CHANGES THAT ARE HAPPENING; DRINK THEM IN and HAVE FUN WITH THEM. YOU ARE BEING TRANSFORMED INTO A BUTTERFLY!!!

Another Pole Shift Update! 6/4/11

I was not paying attention to an important factor. The Earth's Magnetic Field is at ZERO Now.

What does this mean? Many of us have seen videos of how the Earth handles Solar Flares on the media, recently. We have all seen how the Earth's Magnetic Field intercepts the Solar Flare particles and turns them into "Northern Lights" or the Aurora Borealis. This is what happens normally, but what is going to happen when our Magnetic Field is at Zero?

This is why the coming massive Solar Flare activity is going to transform our Planet. The Solar Flare particles operate on a frequency or frequencies that directly impact Pole Shifts and Tectonic Plates which, in turn, impact earthquakes and volcanoes and subsidences.

There has been significant Solar Flare activity all year so far and it is ramping up in June with a bigger ramp up in September. Part of any process that communicates with Spiritual Energy is a "need" to ask the right question. I thought the bigger ramp up of Solar Flare activity was the tipping point, but I did not ask about the Magnetic Field.

The Solar Flare particles have been building up in the Magnetic Pole and the Tectonic Plates over the last five (5) months; there's that number again (re-read the Home page). When enough Solar Flare particle energy has been built-up, shifts will begin to happen in both the Pole and the plates. Big changes, including a large Pole Shift, could be happening as soon as June and they will continue to happen until our Magnetic Field is turned-on again.

That may not happen until 2013, so we have an "interesting" time to live through – OR NOT.

Fear not Dark and Red beings, at the energetic level, we are ALL IMMORTAL and will grow another physical body when we want one. For we Light and Purple beings left-behind, this Solar Flare particle energy is transformative and will allow us to change into higher level beings.

We Are Energy Beings First - 6/8/11

Hello All,

This blog is a little different, but perhaps the most important post I have put up here. We Humans/Newmans tend to think of ourselves as Physical beings; and we are. BUT, WE ARE ALL ENERGETIC BEINGS FIRST!

When we start coming down with the Flu, we feel the scratching of a sore throat and we grab the medicine that worked that last time and try to head the flu off at the pass. If it works, great; but if not, we take to our beds and go through all the aches and pains and feeling sick that we have brought on ourselves.

Most of us think of ourselves as a physical being named, in my case, Dave Maxwell, and we know all about our physical limitations, what we are allergic too, where our pain is, and what chronic issues we have. We do not think or feel that we have much control over our bodies and any, little control, involves doing things like eating differently, exercising, meditating, going on vacations to reduce stress; somehow, it is always about DOING something different. This tool is actually what we are supposed to be using as a Physical Body and most of us have our Internal Programming (yes, like a computer) set to a default setting where changes to our Physical Body can only be made by DOING.

THIS IS SO INCREDIBLY LIMITING!!!

For those of you who know how to connect with your Inner Beings, here is what I suggest you do; yes this is still a DO. Ask your Inner Being if you can change from a default mode of DOING to a default mode of THINKING: by doing this one thing, you will have made yourself into an Advanced Being or, a much more Capable Being. Imagine, you can, now, get money without having to DO anything for it; you can go to a place by Orbing (you know, like Samantha) without having to get transportation to the airport, getting on the airplane and getting transportation again to your destination; THEY WILL HATE THIS, but you can skip Customs and Immigration.

By shifting to a THINKING mode, we are using our Energetic Bodies to control our Physical Bodies; not the reverse.

This is my Last Blog – Mission Accomplished - 6/8/11

Hello All,

SPIRIT prompted me to put this website up to share important information with those who were sent here. I have done that and have been told, by Spirit, that this is my last Post, but not my last activity.

For all of you that are new to this website, read the Home Page, the other Pages and then scroll down to my first Blog in April of 2011 and read them sequentially from the bottom up. Read, Think, Reflect and Act on this information to move forward.

I wrote this e-book to make it easier for new visitors. I have re-ordered the blogs from the oldest in April, May and June forward. Enjoy! And Have Fun With It.

I, will now, go into a respond to your questions mode, so, you new visitors will, also, have to read the comments and my responses on both the Pages and Blogs.

Love and Light, Dave
